

An abstract digital artwork featuring a central glowing sphere with a complex, fractal-like internal structure. Two white, featureless human figures are positioned around the sphere: one is seated on the left, looking towards the center, and the other is floating or falling towards the sphere from the upper right. The background is a deep black, punctuated by vibrant blue, brush-stroke-like patterns that radiate from the central sphere, creating a sense of depth and movement.

Diving into Research Methods and Statistics in Psychology Using R

Juan R. Cabrera, PsyD